

FULBRIGHT SCHOLAR ASSIGNMENT

Babcock University School of Nursing

Ilishan-Remo, Ogun State, Nigeria

September 15, 2025 – May 22, 2026

Advancing nursing education, research, mentorship, and international collaboration

Nine months of teaching, exchange, and service

Babcock University • September 2025–May 2026

The assignment brought together graduate nursing education, faculty development, research mentorship, and institutional capacity-building.

A mutual exchange between Nigerian and American nursing communities

Graduate education remained at the heart of the assignment

Workshop

Research Methods

PhD regular and elongated programs
Master's nursing students

Doctoral Seminar

Research critique, scholarly discourse, written feedback, and topic defenses

Formal teaching began September 22, 2025

A three-day workshop turned qualitative methods into practical skills

35 postgraduate students and faculty • Research design • Data collection • Thematic analysis • Scholarly presentation

Hands-on training strengthened emergency-response readiness

Basic Life Support training • November 2025

Basic Life Support Training

Basic Life Support Training

30 participants gained essential life-saving skills

Mentorship extended learning beyond the classroom

POSTGRADUATE SEMINARS

Pre-field and post-field presentations

STUDENT SUPPORT

Written feedback, topic defenses, and informal mentoring

FACULTY EXCHANGE

Collegial dialogue and shared approaches to graduate education

Resources designed to continue supporting learners after the assignment

Postgraduate Research Handbook

A comprehensive guide from topic selection through thesis completion

Clinical Record

A structured documentation tool for pre-nursing students in medical-surgical nursing

Digital transformation connected teaching, systems, and strategy

Learning Management System Implementation Committee • March–May 2026

Committee contributions

- Evaluation rubric
- Vendor presentations and interviews
- University site visits
- Platform recommendations
- Phased deployment plan

Final committee report submitted May 15, 2026

The assignment was rooted in daily presence and shared university life

Walking From Home To Teach P.hd Students And My Offi

Faculty meetings • University assemblies • Departmental engagement • Informal mentoring

Local engagement created lasting international connections

Education

Graduate teaching and scholarly mentorship

Capacity

Clinical training, research workshops, and academic resources

Partnership

Knowledge exchange across institutions and nursing communities

GLOBAL NURSING LEADERSHIP IN ACTION

The Fulbright assignment reflects
BNANMEP's commitment to education, mentorship, health equity, and nursing leadership without borders.

Black Nurses Association of New Mexico and El Paso

BNANMEP

